THE COCHRANE & DISTRICT AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY is committed to the improvement in agriculture, horticulture, home making and the quality of life in the agricultural community by:

1. Developing activities to encourage and interest youth in the field of agriculture.
2. Supporting and co-operating with other associations and organizations to improve rural life.
3. Supporting and/or providing facilities to encourage activities intended to enrich rural and urban life.
4. Encouraging the breeding and showing of livestock and horticulture for the betterment of agriculture.

THE COCHRANE & DISTRICT AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY has 148 acres located at the junction of highways 22 & 1A. It is being developed to enrich the community and provide facilities for the groups and clubs that meet the criteria as stated above. HOWEVER:

1. Any permanent structure in the Park becomes property of the CDAS.
2. The CDAS has the right to refuse entry to the park to any persons or groups.
3. The CDAS will attempt to give moral, financial and preferential support to groups that enhance agricultural activities.
4. The CDAS will control all activities in the Park in order to ensure coordination.
5. The Park and its facilities will be made available for outside rentals.
6. The CDAS has the right to refuse or restrict entry to any group or person who abuses or damages the Park or any equipment belonging to the CDAS. Entry may also be refused or restricted for behavior in an unseemly, belligerent, or inhumane manner; or non-compliance with the rules and regulations of the CDAS.
