 - i. Prepare or cause to be prepared a written financial report at each Executive and/or Board meeting;
 - j. Perform such other duties as may be directed by the President or the Board.

ARTICLE VI - DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS

- 6.01 Directors shall serve on a voluntary basis without remuneration by the Society except for the reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. However, Directors may provide services to the Society which are in the ordinary course of business for the Director and not part of the duties of the Director to the Society and in such circumstances, the Director may be paid for such services to the extent that the charges for the services are reasonable in the circumstances and the amount of such charges represents no more than the fair market value for the services provided.
- 6.02 In any situation where a Director is contemplating providing services to the Society in return for compensation as provided for in Article 6.01, such Director shall make a full disclosure to the Board of his intention to charge for work to be done, the nature of the work to be performed and the fees to be charged for the work. Such disclosure shall be made and shall be approved by the Board by Ordinary Resolution prior to commencement of any such work. The Director who plans to provide the said work shall not participate in any debate leading up to the approval of such work, and shall not note on the matter.
- 6.03 The affairs of the Society shall be administered by the Board as directed under the Bylaws of the Society and the provisions of the Act. In all actions undertaken by a Director on behalf of the Society in his role as Director, he shall act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interest of the Society.
- 6.04 The Board shall approve all expenditures of the Society. The Board may delegate to the Executive Committee the approval of individual expenditures of less than $500 or expenditures of greater than $500 that are part of a project or larger expenditure that was previously approved by the Board. No Director can commit the Society to any expenditure without the prior approval of the Board.
- 6.05 The Board shall appoint the Standing Committees required to meet the objectives of the Society and such Special Committees as it sees fit to examine or take action on special matters of interest or importance to the Society.
- 6.06 The Board shall be responsible to see that the duties and responsibilities of Officers, employees and volunteers are properly performed.
- 6.07 The Board may, from time to time, elect from among their number, an Officer to fill any vacancy in the Executive Committee.
- 6.08 Subject to the Constitution, the Bylaws, and the Act, the Society shall indemnify and save harmless any Director or any person working on behalf of the Directors who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than a right by or in the right of the Society) by reason of the fact that he is or was serving at the request of the Society as a Director, Officer, employee, agent or other appointee of the Society against expenses (including legal fees), judgements, fines and any amount actually and reasonable incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interest of the Society, and with respect to any criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by monetary penalty, had reasonable grounds to believe that his conduct was lawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgement, order, settlement or conviction shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interest of the Society, and with respect to any criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by monetary penalty, had no reasonable grounds for believing that his conduct was unlawful.

ARTICLE VII - DUTIES OF COMMITTEES AND SUB-COMMITTEES

- 7.01 The work of the Society may be vested in Standing Committees as listed in Schedule A of these Bylaws as amended by the Board from time to time.

- 7.02 Each Standing or Special Committee appointed by the Board shall include a Director and shall be composed of such other Directors and Members as may be required to fulfill the mandate of the Committee.
- 7.03 The Chairman of each Committee shall appoint a recording secretary, and may also appoint a financial coordinator and such other such persons as may be required for the Committee to function properly, and shall establish the rules of conduct under which the Committee shall operate including rule of notice and voting, such rules of conduct are generally consistent with the same rules of conduct for the Society.
- 7.04 The Board shall provide the Chairman of each Committee with a detailed written outline which may include, but is not limited to, what the Committee is expected to do, the time limits for completing the task, directions for when and how the Committee is to report to the Board, and details of any budget the Committee is to work within, This outline will be known as a Committee's Terms of Reference.
- 7.05 Each Committee shall have the power to form sub-committees it deems necessary to complete the tasks assigned to the Committee. Such sub-committees shall not be given any power or authority not previously given the Committee by the Board, and shall have no power of authority to take any action or cause any action to be taken that does not lie within the powers of the Committee.
- 7.06 The Chairman of each Committee shall submit written reports to the Board as directed by the Board detailing all actions taken by the Committee and recommendations for further actions and activities of the Committee.
- 7.07 The Chairman of each Committee shall submit a written report to the Society at each Annual General Meeting detailing all actions taken by the Committee during the year and recommendations for further actions and activities of the Committee in the ensuing year.
- 7.08 The minutes and financial statements of each Committee shall be reported to the Board and incorporated on a regular basis into the master filing system of the Society. In the event that a committee does not adhere to or complete its outlined terms of Reference (see bylaw 7.04), the president shall call an executive meeting to determine the required course of action to be taken, and if necessary the president, as an ex-officio member of said committee, may exercise the authority to assume the position or appoint an alternative director to become the chairman of said committee.

ARTICLE VIII - DUTIES OF USER GROUP COMMITTEES

- 8.01 The User Group Committees of the society shall be those committees listed in Schedule B of these Bylaws as amended by the Board from time to time.
- 8.02 All User Group Committees shall have in place a Facilities User Agreement with the Society that is updated annually at a date set by the Board.
- 8.03 All User Group Committees, for the Society's year-end purposes, shall provide an annual report and financial statement, as per requirements set out by the Board from time to time.
- 8.04 User Group Committees do not require a society Director as part of their committee.
- 8.05 All User Group Committees, as a financial requirement, shall inscribe the words: "A committee of the Cochrane & District Agricultural Society" on each cheque.

ARTICLE IX - MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY

- 9.01 Board meetings shall be held upon Notice at least once every two months, with the exception of July and August when no Board meeting will be held, at such time and place as may be disclosed in the Notice.
- 9.02 Committee meetings shall be held upon Notice at such time and place as may be disclosed in the Notice at such intervals as may be determined by the Chairman of the Committee.
- 9.03 Executive Committee meetings shall be held upon Notice at least monthly at such time and place as may be disclosed in the Notice.
- 9.04 The Annual General Meeting of the Society shall be held on or before the 30th of November each year. The Secretary shall provide Notice to the members and General Notice of the Annual General Meeting as provided in these Bylaws.

 - h. Adjournment.
- 9.06 At the Annual General Meeting, the Directors and Committee Chairmen shall each present written reports as follows:
- a. a report of their proceedings for the most recent financial year with such remarks and suggestions as to the state of matters under their area of responsibility;
 - b. a statement showing the name, occupation and post office address of each member and opposite his name, the amount of his subscription to the Society for the current financial year and the date the said subscription was paid to the Society;
 - c. a detailed statement, certified by the auditors, of the assets and liabilities of the Society and of each respective Committee of the Society;
 - d. a report of each activity carried out by the Society and / or Committee during the current financial year, giving a brief description of the activity, and the numbers of participants;
 - e. a separate statement for each activity referred to in Article 9.05 (c.) showing the amount offered and the amount actually paid out for prizes and awards and the number of entries in each class.
- 9.07 Fifteen (15) members of the Society (one of whom shall be the President or Vice President and one other Officer) shall constitute a quorum of any duly constituted meeting of the Society.
- 9.08 Six (6) Directors (one of whom shall be the President or a Vice President) shall constitute a quorum of any duly constituted meeting of the Board.
- 9.09 The quorum for any duly constituted meeting of any Committee shall be a majority of the members of that Committee.
- 9.10 The Chairman of any meeting may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for more than ten (10) days, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of the original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
- 9.11 In order to be eligible to vote at any meeting of the Society a member must have paid the prescribed membership fees for the current year at least five (5) days prior to the meeting.

- 9.12 The Treasurer or his designate, shall be present at the Annual General Meeting of the Society one hour before the meeting for the purpose of selling memberships for the upcoming year. Any member of the Society eligible to vote and anyone paying membership dues at the meeting may speak on any matter coming before the membership for consideration, but only those members eligible to vote may vote. The Chairman of the meeting shall have the final say on the eligibility of any individual claiming to have the right to vote.
- 9.13 The result of any vote (whether Ordinary Resolution or Special Resolution) at any duly constituted meeting shall be determined by counting only the votes in favor or against any resolution that are cast on the matter. Abstentions shall not be considered in determining whether a resolution is passed or lost.
- 9.14 Directors absent for three or more consecutive Board meetings shall forfeit their position as Director and be replaced per Bylaw 4.03 except in extraordinary circumstances, the Board of Directors will decide.

ARTICLE X - ELECTION AND VOTING

- 10.01 The election of the Directors shall be held at the Annual General Meeting.
- 10.02 The election process is determined and directed by the Nomination Committee, and the results of the ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting.
- 10.03 At all matters coming before the meeting, each Voting Member shall be entitled to one vote. On a ballot, votes must be given personally. No proxies are permitted.
- 10.04 The Chairman of any meeting shall not have the right to vote on all matters coming before the meeting. In the case of equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a ballot, the Chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote.
- 10.05 Each Voting Member shall be eligible for election as a Director.
- 10.06 The Officers (executive committee) shall be elected from among the elected directors at the first Board of Directors meeting held immediately following the Annual General Meeting of the Society.
